

Dear Parents,

On Thursday, students will have their fifth test in Math class. On Wednesday, we reviewed the material in class with an online review. Your student can access the review over the weekend by signing into their Google Classroom account and following the link or by directly going to the review by entering the following url, tinyurl.com/y84gmpb5. Click on Practice on the right-hand side. Your student can review old homework assignments, as well.

Sincerely,

Fifth Grade Math Team
